Vision: discussion, discernment and feedback: Joel

Joel recapped from previous meetings and preaching series on a Healthy Hub

Having broken into small groups the following four questions were discussed, with set time limits for each, with points being written on Post It notes and attached to the relevant flip chart.

- What should the church hub prioritise to be healthy?
- What might church spiritual outposts look like?
- What are the challenges meeting Youth, Children and Families?
- What strengths does our church have to help us meet the challenges that we have talked about in the previous question?

Lots of people in this church are already doing awesome work with our children and young people.

We have Open the Book working in schools.

Joel said that his heart was to connect with what Open the Book does in schools, those who go into schools to read, those outposts to the hub, here at church. We have been exploring, with local and national youth work organisations about getting a youth worker. If we went down that route, then we would need to provide accommodation.

We are also exploring possibilities with other local churches, because together we can do so much more.

Just so that you know, the cost of employing a Youth Worker for 2 days a week (16 hours) is about £10,000 a year. You have all seen the budget. God doesn't give us a pot of money and tell us what to do with it. He tells us what to do and then He supplies more and above what we could have asked or imagined. This doesn't mean we are going to get someone. We are just exploring options at this time. We want to hear from God together.

We will take all these comments away and look at what is being said and then come back with it.

Andrew highlighted the forthcoming baptisms and an Easter Breakfast
